Monday	LO: to create a character.	ZOOM: Other than Tree Goblins, there are many other types of goblins. When writing your own story, your character could meet a different type of goblin. How many types of goblin can you come up with? Make a list.	Choose 3 of your favourite goblins from this list. Draw each goblin in the picture frame and write 5 facts that everyone should know about each goblin.	Zoom link, exercise book, pencil, picture frame template (if desired).	Goblins, different types, character, personality, habitat.
Tuesday	LO: to explore a setting.	ZOOM: Tell me something you know about The Impossibly Possible Bookshop. Re-read the section of the story where Sammy enters a Tree Goblin's birthday party.	Together, highlight all of the things Sammy can see. Using this knowledge, draw a detailed picture of the birthday party, labelling all of the things Sammy can see.	Zoom link, exercise book, pencil, section of the text from the story.	Sammy, birthday party, Tree Goblins, detail, label, picture.
Wednesday	LO: to create a 'goblin world'.	A setting is the place where a story takes place. One of the settings of The Impossibly Possible Bookshop is in the trunk of a large tree.	Using a shoebox or flower pot, make your own goblin world. You can base it on the tree goblin setting or another goblin world of your own creation.	Shoebox / flower pot or cardboard box, paper, colouring pencils / felt tips, other craft resources.	Setting, place or location, world.
