Monday	To recognise alternative spellings for the /igh/ phoneme	Today we'll be revising the different ways of spelling the /igh/ phoneme that we learnt last week: igh ie i_e i y	Have a go at the igh phoneme spotter and word sort activity on Phonics Play: https://www.phonicsplay.co.uk/resources/phase/5/alt-spellings-igh	Phonics Play login Username swaffpri, Password phonics
Tuesday	To read tricky words To write tricky words	(Miss Foster's day)	If you have time today, have another go at reading and writing tricky words: https://www.phonicsplay.co.uk/resources/phase/5/tricky-word-trucks . Try the phase 5A tricky words first, then either go up or down to find suitable words. Can you read them all correctly? Next, try writing each one – can you spell them correctly? Which are the 'tricky' bits in each word? e.g. in the word 'people', it's the 'oe' spelling of the /ee/ phoneme.	Phonics Play login Username swaffpri, Password phonics
Wednesday	To revise common ways to spell the /oa/ phoneme	We have already learnt some of the most common ways to spell the /oa/ phoneme: - oa as in road - oe as in toe - o_e as in hole	In your reading book, can you find any words with the /oa/ phoneme (any spelling)?  Write a list of them in your book.	-writing equipment and book
Thursday	To learn alternative spellings for the /oa/ phoneme	Zoom lesson at 10 am – see class Dojo for the link. Today we will learn some less common ways to spell the /oa/ phoneme: - ow as in snow - o as in tomato - ough as in dough	Read the phoneme spotter https://www.phonicsplay.co.uk/resources/phase/5/alt-spellings-oa and write or highlight the words containing the /oa/ phoneme (any spelling).	-Whiteboard and pen Phonics Play login Username swaffpri, Password phonics
Friday	To recognise alternative spellings for the /oa/ phoneme	Zoom lesson at 10 am – see class Dojo for the link. Today, we will consolidate what we've learnt about /oa/ alternative spellings and try to use the correct spellings for words containing the /oa/ phoneme.	Play the word sorting game – sort the /oa/ words according to how they are spelt: https://www.phonicsplay.co.uk/resources/phase/5/alt-spellings-oa Draw a table in your book like the one on Phonics Play. Write the words in the correct columns. Can you add any of your own? Test yourself – how many can you spell correctly?	Phonics Play login Username swaffpri, Password phonics
