

Year 2 English with Mrs Sycamore. Please begin by writing the date and LO in your books.

2nd February 2021

LO: To write a statement, question, exclamation and command.

Your Task

Mrs Sycamore's Storytime today told the story of 'Stanley the Amazing Kitting Cat'. Stanley loves to knit and entered a 'Woolly Wonders' knitting competition.

This is the poster that advertised the knitting competition.

To begin our learning today, we need to think of our own ideas for a competition. This may be something you enjoy, something you are very good at, or even something new that you can never tried before!

We will then plan our own adverts to tell people about our competitions.

1. Your advert must include at least one of each sentence type (statement, exclamation, command and question.) See below for the definitions of these sentences, and some examples. You may wish to adapt these, or start from scratch.
2. You should start by writing your sentences in your books. Say them out loud first to make sure they make sense!
3. For fast workers - you could then create a poster using your 4 sentences.

Happy writing!

Example of what the page in your book may look like:

2nd February 2021

LO: To write a statement, question, exclamation and command.

Statement - Baking competition this Saturday.

Question - Would you like to win a prize?

Command - Enter at the Village Hall now!

Exclamation - There will be free cake for all!

Sentence Types

Statements

Statements are sentences which tell you something. They end with a full stop.

Rainbows have 7 colours. They are beautiful to look at.

Questions

Questions are sentences that ask you something. They usually end with a question mark.

What did you have for dinner?

Commands

Commands are sentences that tell you to do something. They are found in instructions but can also be urgent or angry and can be very short.

Help me! Please stop doing that.

Exclamations

An exclamation is a sentence beginning with 'What' or 'How'. It is a full sentence, including a verb, which ends with an exclamation mark.

What a dangerous mountain to climb!
