

Who stole the coke?

Gone! My can of coke. No note! No hope!

Did the bloke with the mole on his nose take my coke? We are in Rome to see the pope and I need a drink of coke. The sun shone all day. It is so hot .My throat is as dry as a bone. Phone the bloke who stole my coke. He rode to Rome on the bus. Look at that rose. Put the hose on the rose. Come and stroke the ox that has a yoke. Put a rope on the yoke and go down the slope with the ox to the house in Rome and get my coke from the bloke with the mole on his nose.

1. What is on the bloke's nose? _____

2. Why are we in Rome? _____

3. Why is it so hot? _____

4. Who must we phone? _____

5. How did he get to Rome? _____

6. Where must we put the rope? _____